

207. All judgments rendered by a justice of the peace in said county shall be a lien on all lands and real estate of the defendant in such judgment, lying within said county, from the time when a short copy of such judgment shall have been filed and recorded in the office of the clerk of the Circuit Court for said county, and the clerk of the Circuit Court shall keep a separate record book for such copies, with an index thereto, stating doubly the names of the plaintiff and defendant, and shall be entitled to the sum of twenty-five cents for filing, recording and indexing every such copy.

208. He shall, on the application of the plaintiff in any such judgment, issue execution thereon, directed to the sheriff, and returnable before the Circuit Court in the said county.

LEITERSBURG.

209. The citizens of Leitersburg, in Washington county, are a body corporate by the name of "The Burgess and Commissioners of Leitersburg," and by that name may sue and be sued, and may have and use a common seal.

210. The bounds of the town of Leitersburg shall be as follow: Commencing at a poplar tree on the road leading from Leitersburg to Smithsburg, near a stable belonging to Jeremiah Slick; thence running with a straight line to a stable near the house occupied by Daniel Lawmanson in the year eighteen hundred and fifty-three; thence with a straight line to a spring on or near a lot belonging to Nathan McDowell, on the road leading from Leitersburg to Green Castle; thence with a straight line to a blacksmith shop occupied by G. W. Lantz in said year, belonging to George Poe; thence with a straight line to the beginning.

211. The free white male citizens of Leitersburg, of the age of twenty-one years and upwards, who have resided twelve months in said town next preceding the election, shall, on the first Monday in April in each year, elect by ballot a burgess, assistant burgess, and three commissioners, of the age of twenty-one years, who shall have resided in said town twelve months next preceding the election.

212. All elections shall be held and conducted as shall from time to time be directed by the by-laws of the corporation, not inconsistent with this charter.
